FACTS AND EVIDENCE:-

On credible information that the officers and staff of Integrated Check Post, B.V.Palem, Tada Mandal SPSR Nellore District are indulging in corrupt practices and collecting mamools from the crew of vehicles plying through Integrated Check Post, B.V.Palem, a surprise check was conducted over transport wing, prohibition and excise wing, commercial taxes incoming and outgoing wings of Integrated Check Post, B.V.Palem on 21-12-2013 from 00-30 hrs to 06-00 hrs with four teams headed by the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Anti Corruption Bureau, Nellore Range, Nellore in the presence of mediators. After completion of the surprise check at the transport wing, the team consisting of Deputy Superintendent of Police and others proceeded to Commercial Tax Outgoing Check Post and found the presence of Team No.4 wherein Sri.K.Venkateswarlu, Inspector of Police, Anti Corruption Bureau informed to the Deputy Superintendent of Police that as per his instructions they visited the check post and found some gathering in the said check post and on seeing them two persons namely A.Sunil Kumar and D.Adireddy who were present in between the office complex and crew of the vehicles tried to run away from the said place and they were caught and kept them in the office room. Further the Inspector K.Venkateswarlu asked all the staff available at the outgoing check post to remain there till the arrival of the other team and also the Deputy Superintendent of Police. After that the Deputy Superintendent of Police arrived to the outgoing check post office and found the presence of the two private persons A.Sunil Kumar and D.Adireddy and on the request of Deputy Superintendent of Police the staff and the said two private persons disclosed the amounts available with him. days. He also produced an amount of Rs.800/- which was collected as mamools to be given to the check post officials for verification of the documents and stamping from the crew of the vehicle. The Deputy Superintendent of Police also seized the same. When the Deputy Superintendent of Police confronted the versions of both the private persons and all the staff kept silent without offering any explanation. The Deputy Superintendent of Police also verified the personal cash register and also the actual amount available with them and they are tallied and hence the cash was returned to them. While it was so as usual the crew of the vehicles visited the counters along with goods records in one hand and currency notes in the other hand and paying the mamools to the staff for checking their books and to issue relevant bills and the amount was pooled up which comes to Rs.8,595/-. Some of the crew members were examined and stated that the officials are receiving the mamools for ignoring the violations.

As per the duty register pertaining to the Commercial Taxes Department on the date of surprise check, Sri P.Srinivasulu was present and he was on duty. As per the voluntary statements given by the two above private persons, Sri P.Srinivasulu in connivance with P.Ramesh, K.Srinivasulu, N.Vidya Sager and this Suspected Officer collecting mamools from the crew of the vehicles in order to ignore the violations made by the said crew while checking the records. Private persons cannot be engaged as per the rules of the check post but the officials of the said check post engaged these two private individuals and opted illegal methods and collected an amount of Rs.2,000/- in total through the two private persons. Further there is no explanation given by Sri P.Srinivasulu regarding the availability of Rs.2000/-. All these factors reveal that Suspected Officer-26 Sri P.Srinivasulu in collusion with the other staff members are collecting mamools crew of the vehicles for ignoring their latches during the transit and thereby they have clearly violated the conduct rules. Further on verification of the interior room of the outgoing check post where the officials are sitting an amount of Rs.3,965/- was found behind the iron almarah and the Deputy Superintendent of Police questioned about the availability of the amount but the Government Servant could not account for the same.

Thus the Government Servant Sri P.Srinivasulu, Attender, Commercial Taxes Department by his above-mentioned acts has exhibited lack of integrity, devotion to duty and conduct unbecoming of a Government Servant and thereby contravened Rule 3 (1) (2)and 9(8A) of Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964.
